Perth Mint Perth Mint was a minting facility at the Perth Mint, located in Mint Park, Perth, Western Australia. It was established in 1899 and closed in 2007. The Perth Mint was established in 1899 and ceased minting in 2007. It is the oldest minting facility still in operation. History The Government of Western Australia established the Perth Mint in 1899 to provide a place to cast and sell small quantities of gold and other precious metals. It began operations in January 1900, just two weeks after the founding of the colony of Western Australia. The mint was housed in a number of buildings in a area in Mint Park near the Swan River. It was the first mint in Australia. By 1912, the mint was producing 20 million gold sovereigns per year. In 1939, a treasury was established to take over the responsibility of minting the gold sovereigns. By 2007, the mint had ceased producing gold sovereigns. In 2008, the mint began producing the .9999 fine Gold Australian Nugget. In July 2010, the Perth Mint released a limited edition (30,000 pieces) commemorative gold 50 dollar piece, created for the 50
